Ex-Im Bank helps U.S. companies to sustain and create jobs by financing U.S. exports.

PETER B. SABA

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER AND GENERAL COUNSEL

Peter B. Saba is the Chief Operating Officer of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (Ex-Im Bank). He is also Senior Vice President for Legal Affairs and General Counsel of Ex-Im Bank. In addition, he chairs Ex-Im Bank's Task Force on Iraq Reconstruction.

Mr. Saba joined Ex-Im Bank as General Counsel in June 2001. Ex-Im Bank is an independent U.S. government agency that helps finance the sale of U.S. exports primarily to emerging markets throughout the world, by providing loans, guarantees, and insurance. In fiscal year 2003, Ex-Im Bank authorized financing to support approximately $14.3 billion of U.S. exports worldwide.

Mr. Saba is also an Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University Law Center, where he teaches a course in International Business Transactions.

Prior to joining Ex-Im Bank, Mr. Saba specialized in international infrastructure project development and financing, and other aspects of international trade, investment and finance in private practice with Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, in Washington, D.C.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Saba served at the U.S. Department of Energy from 1989 to 1993, first for two years as Counselor to the Deputy Secretary, and then for two years as the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Domestic and International Energy Policy.

Mr. Saba is a 1985 honors graduate of Harvard Law School and received his Bachelors of Arts degree with highest distinction from the University of Virginia in 1982, majoring in both economics and foreign affairs. From 1985 to 1989, Mr. Saba was in private practice in Washington, D.C., specializing in corporate and securities law.
